Section 1(2) of
Appendix 3 to the
Listing Rules

Chapter 4 Increase, Reduction and Repurchase of Shares

Article 21 The Company may, based on its operational and development needs, authorise the increase of its capital pursuant to these Articles of Association.

Article 20 of the
Mandatory
Provisions
Article 168 of the
Company Law

The Company may increase its capital in the following ways:

- (1) by offering new shares for subscription by specific or general investors;
- (2) by placement of new shares to existing shareholders;
- (3) by allotting bonus shares to existing shareholders;
- (4) by increasing the share capital out of the common reserve fund;
- (5) by any other means which is permitted by the laws, administrative regulations and authorized by the securities regulatory authorities of the State Council.

After the Company's increase of share capital by means of the issuance of new shares has been approved in accordance with the provisions of these Articles of Association, the issuance should be made in accordance with the procedures set out in the relevant laws and administrative regulations.

Article 22 According to the provisions of these Articles of Association, the Company may reduce its registered capital. In doing so, it shall act according to the Company Law, other relevant regulations and these Articles of Association.

Article 22 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

Article 23 The Company must prepare a balance sheet and an inventory of assets when it reduces its registered capital.

Article 23 of the
Mandatory
Provisions
Articles 177 and 179 of the
Company Law

The Company shall notify its creditors within 10 days of the date of the Company's resolution for reduction of capital and shall publish an announcement in newspaper(s) within 30 days. Creditors are entitled to request the Company to repay its debts or to provide a corresponding guarantee for such debt within 30 days of receipt of notice from the Company or, in the case of a creditor who does not receive such notice, within 45 days of the date of the announcement.

The Company's registered capital may not, after the reduction in capital, be less than the minimum amount prescribed by law.

The Company shall complete the registration of capital reduction with the authorities in accordance with the law.

Article 24 The Company may not repurchase the shares of the Company, except for one of the below situations:

Article 142 of the
Company Law
Article 24 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

- (1) its registered capital is reduced;
- (2) merging with another company that holds shares of the Company takes place;
- (3) the shares are issued under the employee share scheme or equity incentive;
- (4) when requested by any shareholder to purchase his shares because this shareholder objects to any resolution of merger or division made by the Company at general meeting;
- (5) the shares are converted under the convertible bonds of the Company in issue;
- (6) any necessary action is taken to protect the company values and shareholders' equity interest;
- (7) other circumstances permitted by law, administrative regulations or competent authorities.

Article 25 The Company may repurchase shares in one of the following ways, with the approval of the relevant competent authority:

Article 142 of the
Company Law
Article 25 of the
Mandatory
Provisions
Rule 10.05 of the
Listing Rules

- (1) by making an offer for the repurchase of shares to all its shareholders on a pro-rata basis;
- (2) by on-market repurchase;
- (3) by off-market repurchase through an agreement;

(4) by any other means which is permitted by competent authorities.

The company shall repurchase its shares in an open and concentrated manner if such repurchase is made due to reasons provided in Article 24(3), (5), and (6) pursuant to these Article of Association.

Article 26 The Company must obtain the prior approval of the shareholders in a general meeting in the manner stipulated in these Articles of Association before it can effect an off-market repurchase through an agreement. The Company may, by obtaining the prior approval of the shareholders in a general meeting (in the same manner), rescind or vary any contract which has been so entered into or waive any right thereunder.

Article 26 of the
Mandatory
Provisions
Section 8(1), 8(2)
of Appendix 3 to
the Listing Rules

A contract for the repurchase of shares referred to in the preceding paragraph includes (but is not limited to) an agreement which causes the Company to become entitled or obliged to repurchase its shares.

The Company may not assign any contract for the repurchase of its shares or any right contained in such contract.

Where the Company has the right to repurchase redeemable shares:

- (1) repurchases not made on-market or by tender shall be limited to a maximum price;
- (2) if repurchases are made by tender, tenders shall be made to all shareholders alike.

Article 27 If the Company repurchases its shares due to reasons provided in Articles 24(1) and (2), such repurchase shall be approved by the shareholders in general meeting pursuant to these Articles of Association. If the Company repurchase its shares due to reasons provided in Article 24 (3), (5), and (6), such repurchase shall be approved by two-thirds of the directors attending the board meeting pursuant to these Articles of Association.

Article 142 of the
Company Law
Article 27 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

Where shares of the Company are repurchased in accordance with Article 24(1), they shall be canceled within 10 days of being repurchased; where shares of the Company are repurchased in accordance with Articles 24(2) or (4), they shall be transferred or canceled within 6 months of being repurchased; where shares of the Company are repurchased in accordance with Article 24(3), (5), and (6), the aggregate number of shares of the Company held by the Company shall not exceed 10% of the total issued shares of the Company and be transferred or canceled within three years.

The aggregate nominal value of the cancelled shares shall be deducted from the Company's registered capital, and registration of the change in its registered capital shall be submitted to the relevant authority.

Article 28 Unless the Company is in liquidation, it must comply with the following provisions in relation to repurchase of its outstanding shares: Article 28 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

- (1) where the Company repurchases shares at nominal value, payment shall be made out of the book balance of the distributable profits of the Company or out of the proceeds from a new issue of shares made for that purpose;
- (2) where the Company repurchases its shares of the Company at a premium, payment up to the nominal value may be made out of the book balance of the distributable profits of the Company or out of the proceeds from a new issue of shares made for that purpose. Payment of the premium shall be effected as follows:
 1. if the shares being repurchased were issued at nominal value, payment shall be made out of the book balance of the distributable profits of the Company;
 2. if the shares being repurchased were issued at a premium, payment shall be made out of the book balance of the distributable profits of the Company or out of the proceeds from a new issue of shares made for that purpose, provided that the amount paid out of the proceeds from the new issue shall not exceed the premium received by the Company on the issue of the repurchased shares nor shall it exceed the book value of the Company's capital common reserve fund account (including any premiums on the new issue) at the time of the repurchase;
- (3) the Company shall make any payment for the following purposes out of the Company's distributable profits:
 1. acquisition of the right to repurchase its own shares;
 2. variation of any contract for the repurchase of its shares;
 3. release of the Company's obligation(s) under any contract for the repurchase of shares;
- (4) after the Company's registered capital has been reduced by the aggregate nominal value of the cancelled shares in accordance with the relevant provisions, the amount deducted from the distributable profits of the Company for payment of the nominal value of shares which have been repurchased shall be recorded in the Company's capital common reserve fund account.

Chapter 5 Financial Assistance for Purchase of Company Shares

Article 29 The Company and its subsidiaries shall not, at any time, provide any form of financial assistance to a person who is acquiring or is proposing to acquire shares in the Company. This includes any person who directly or indirectly incurs any obligations as a result of acquisition of shares in the Company. Article 29 of the Mandatory Provisions

The Company and its subsidiaries shall not, at any time, provide any form of financial assistance for the purposes of reducing or discharging the obligations assumed by any person as a result of acquisition of shares in the Company.

This Article shall not apply to the circumstances specified in Article 31 of these Articles of Association.

Article 30 For the purposes of this Chapter, “financial assistance” includes (but is not limited to) the following: Article 30 of the Mandatory Provisions

- (1) gifts;
- (2) guarantee (including the assumption of obligations of another or provision of assets to secure the performance of obligations by another), compensation (other than compensation arising out of the Company’s own fault) or release or waiver of any right;
- (3) provision of a loan or the making of any other agreement under which the obligations of the Company are to be fulfilled before the obligations of another party, or the change in parties to, or the assignment of rights under, such loan or contract;
- (4) any other form of financial assistance given by the Company when the Company is unable to pay its debts, has no net assets or when its net assets would be reduced by a material extent.

For the purposes of this Chapter, assumption of obligations by a person includes the assumption of obligations by way of contract or other arrangement (irrespective of whether such contract or arrangement is enforceable or not and irrespective of whether such obligations are borne jointly with other persons) or by any other means which results in a change in his financial position.

Article 31 The following acts shall not be deemed to be acts prohibited by Article 29 of these Articles of Association:

Article 31 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

- (1) the provision of financial assistance by the Company where the financial assistance is given in good faith and in the interests of the Company, and the principal purpose of which is not for the acquisition of shares in the Company, or the giving of the financial assistance is an incidental part of some larger purpose of the Company;
- (2) the lawful distribution of the Company's assets as dividends;
- (3) the distribution of dividends in the form of shares;
- (4) a reduction of registered capital, a repurchase of shares of the Company or a reorganization of the shareholding structure of the Company effected in accordance with these Articles of Association;
- (5) the provision of loans by the Company for its normal operations within its normal scope of business (provided that this does not reduce the net assets of the Company or that financial assistance is provided out of the distributable profits of the Company, if it does reduce the net assets of the Company);
- (6) contributions made by the Company to employee share schemes (provided that this does not reduce the net assets of the Company or that financial assistance is provided out of the distributable profits of the Company, if it does reduce the net assets of the Company).

Chapter 6 Share Certificates and Register of Shareholders

Article 32 Share certificates of the Company shall be in registered form.

Article 32 of the
Mandatory
Provisions
Article 128 of the
Company Law
Section 2(2) of
Appendix 3 to the
Listing Rules

The share certificates of the Company shall bear the following main items:

- (1) name of the Company;
- (2) date of registration and establishment of the Company;
- (3) type of share, nominal value and the number of shares it represents;
- (4) number of the share certificate;
- (5) other matters as required by the Company Law, Special Regulations and the stock exchange(s) on which the shares are listed.

To the extent that the Company is authorized to issue warranties to unregistered holders, no new warranties shall be issued in substitution for any lost original warranties unless the Company is certain with no reasonable doubts that the original warranties have been destroyed.

Article 33 The share certificates of the Company may be transferred, gifted, inherited and pledged in accordance with relevant laws, administrative rules, regulations of competent authorities as well as these Articles of Association.

The assignment of transfer of shares shall be registered with the share registrar appointed by the Company.

Article 34 The Company does not accept the pledging of its share certificates.

Article 142 of the Company Law

Article 35 Share certificates of the Company shall be signed by the chairman of the board of directors. Where the stock exchange(s) on which the Company's shares are listed require other senior management personnel of the Company to sign, the share certificates shall also be signed by such officer(s). The share certificates become effective after being sealed with the seal of the Company, or with the seal sign in printed form. The share certificate shall only be sealed with the Company's seal under the authorisation of the board of directors. The signatures of the chairman of the board of directors or other senior management personnel of the Company may be in printed form.

Article 33 of the Mandatory Provisions, Article 1 of the Circular of Supplemental Comments Article 3 of the Special Regulations Rule 2(1) of Appendix 3 of the Listing Rules

The Company may take the form of overseas depositary receipt or other derivative form of share certificate to issue overseas-listed foreign-invested shares.

Article 36 The Company shall keep a register of shareholders which shall contain the following particulars:

Article 34 of the Mandatory Provisions

- (1) the name and address (residence), the occupation or type of each shareholder;
- (2) the class and quantity of shares held by each shareholder;
- (3) the amount paid-up on or agreed to be paid-up on the shares held by each shareholder
- (4) the share certificate number(s) of the shares held by each shareholder;
- (5) the date on which each shareholder was registered as a shareholder;
- (6) the date on which any shareholder ceased to be a shareholder.

Unless there is evidence to the contrary, the register of shareholders shall be sufficient evidence of the shareholders' shareholdings in the Company.

Article 37 The Company may, in accordance with the mutual understanding and agreements made between the securities regulatory authorities of the State Council and overseas securities regulatory organisations, maintain the register of shareholders of overseas-listed foreign-invested shares overseas and appoint overseas agent(s) to manage such register of shareholders. The original register of shareholders for holders of overseas-listed foreign-invested shares listed in Hong Kong shall be maintained in Hong Kong.

Article 35 of the Mandatory Provisions Article 2 of the Circular of Supplemental Comments Section 1(b) of Appendix 13D of the Listing Rules

A duplicate register of shareholders for the holders of overseas-listed foreign-invested shares shall be maintained at the Company's residence. The appointed overseas agent(s) shall ensure consistency between the original and the duplicate registers of shareholders at all times.

If there is any inconsistency between the original and the duplicate registers of shareholders of overseas-listed foreign-invested shares, the original register of shareholders shall prevail.

Article 38 The Company shall keep a complete register of shareholders.

Article 36 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

The register of shareholders shall comprise the following parts:

- (1) the register of shareholders which is maintained at the Company's residence (other than those share registers which are described in sub- paragraphs (2) and (3) of this Article);
- (2) the register of shareholders in respect of the holders of overseas- listed foreign-invested shares of the Company which is maintained in the same place as the overseas stock exchange on which the shares are listed; and
- (3) the register of shareholders which is maintained in such other place as the board of directors may consider necessary for the purposes of the listing of the Company's shares.

Article 39 Different parts of the register of shareholders shall not overlap. While transferred shares continue to be registered in one part of the register of shareholders, they shall not be registered in another part of the register. Amendments or rectification of the register of shareholders shall be made in accordance with the laws of the place where the register of shareholders is maintained.

Article 37 of the
Mandatory
Provisions
Article 12 of the
Circular of Supplemental
Comments
Rules 1(1), 1(2),
1(3), 19A.46 of
Appendix 3 of the
Listing Rules

All H Shares listed in Hong Kong which have been fully paid-up may be freely transferred in accordance with the Articles of Association. However, unless such transfer complies with the following requirements, the board of directors may refuse to recognise any document of transfer and would not need to provide any reason therefor:

- (1) transfer documents and other documents which relates to share ownership or may affect share ownership shall be registered, and a fee determined under the Listing Rules shall be paid to the Company for such registration;
- (2) the document of transfer only relates to H Shares listed in Hong Kong;
- (3) the stamp duty which is chargeable on the document of transfer has already been paid;

- (4) the relevant share certificate(s) and any other evidence which the board of directors may reasonably require to show that the transferor has the right to transfer the shares have been provided;
- (5) if it is intended that the shares be transferred to joint holders, the maximum number of joint holders shall not be more than four (4); and
- (6) the Company does not have any lien on the relevant shares.

If the board of directors refuses to register a share transfer, the Company shall send the transferor and the transferee a notice of refusal to register the said share transfer within two months from the date of submission of the application for transfer.

All overseas-listed foreign-invested shares shall be transferred by an instrument in writing in the usual or common form or any other form which the board of directors may accept. The instrument of transfer of any share may be executed by hand without seal, or if the assignor or the assignee is a recognised clearing house as defined in the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Chapter 571 of the Laws of Hong Kong) (“recognised clearing house”) or its agent, the share transfer form may be executed by hand or in mechanically-printed form. All share transfer forms shall be maintained in the legal address of the Company or other places designated by the board of directors from time to time.

Article 40 No change may be made in the register of shareholders as a result of a transfer of shares within 30 days prior to the date of a general meeting or within five days before the determination date for the Company’s distribution of dividends. Article 38 of the Mandatory Provisions

Despite the foregoing provision, the laws, administrative rules, departments regulations, normative documents and other requirements set by the relevant security exchange or regulatory body where the shares of the Company are listed shall prevail.

Article 41 When the Company needs to convene a general meeting for the purposes of dividend distribution, liquidation or for any other purpose for which shareholdings need to be determined, the board of directors or the convenor of the general meeting shall determine a record date for the determination of shareholdings. The shareholders of the Company shall be such persons who appear in the register of shareholders at the close of such record date. Article 39 of the Mandatory Provisions

Article 42 Any person who disputes the register of shareholders and asks for inclusion of his name in or removal of his name from the register of shareholders may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for rectification of the register. Article 40 of the Mandatory Provisions

Article 43 For any person who is a registered shareholder or who claims to be entitled to have his name entered in the register of shareholders in respect of shares in the Company may, if his share certificate (the “original certificate”) relating to the shares is lost, apply to the Company for a replacement share certificate in respect of such shares (the “Relevant Shares”).

Application by a holder of domestic shares, who has lost his share certificate, for a replacement share certificate shall be dealt with in accordance with the relevant requirements of the Company Law.

Application by a holder of overseas-listed foreign-invested shares, who has lost his share certificate, for a replacement share certificate may be dealt with in accordance with laws of the place where the original register of shareholders of overseas-listed foreign-invested shares is maintained, the rules of the stock exchange or other relevant regulations.

The issuance of a replacement share certificate to a shareholder of H Shares, who has lost his share certificate, shall comply with the following requirements:

- (1) The applicant shall submit an application to the Company in a prescribed form accompanied by a notarial certificate or a statutory declaration, of which the contents shall include the grounds upon which the application is made and the circumstances and evidence of loss, and the declaration that no other person is entitled to have his name entered in the register of shareholders in respect of the Relevant Shares.
- (2) The Company has not received any declaration made by any person other than the applicant declaring that his name shall be entered in the register of shareholders in respect of such shares before it decides to issue a replacement share certificate to the applicant.
- (3) The Company shall, if it intends to issue a replacement share certificate, publish a notice of its intention to do so at least once every 30 days within a period of 90 consecutive days in such newspapers as may be prescribed by the board of directors.
- (4) The Company shall, prior to publication of its intention to issue a replacement share certificate, deliver to the stock exchange on which its shares are listed, a copy of the notice to be published and may publish the notice upon receipt of confirmation from such stock exchange that the notice has been exhibited in the premises of the stock exchange. Such notice shall be exhibited in the premises of the stock exchange for a period of 90 days. In the case of an application which is made without the consent of the registered shareholder of the Relevant Shares, the Company shall deliver by mail to such registered shareholder a copy of the notice to be published.

- (5) If, by the expiration of the 90-day period referred to in paragraphs (3) and (4) of this Article, the Company has not received any objection from any person in respect of the issuance of the replacement share certificate, it may issue a replacement share certificate to the applicant pursuant to his application.
- (6) Where the Company issues a replacement share certificate pursuant to this Article, it shall forthwith cancel the original share certificate and document the cancellation of the original share certificate and issuance of a replacement share certificate in the register of shareholders accordingly.
- (7) All expenses relating to the cancellation of an original share certificate and the issuance of a replacement share certificate shall be borne by the applicant and the Company is entitled to refuse to take any action until reasonable guarantee has been provided by the applicant.

Article 44 Where the Company issues a replacement share certificate pursuant to the Articles of Association, a bona fide purchaser obtaining new share certificates referred to above or a shareholder registered as a holder of the shares (if he is a bona fide purchaser), his name shall not be removed from the register of shareholders.

Article 42 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

Article 45 The Company shall not be liable for any damage sustained by any person by reason of the cancellation of the original share certificate or the issuance of the replacement share certificate unless the claimant is able to prove fraud on the part of the Company.

Article 43 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

Chapter 7 Rights and Obligations of Shareholders

Article 46 A shareholder of the Company is a person who lawfully holds shares in the Company and whose name is entered in the register of shareholders.

Article 44 of the
Mandatory
Provisions
Rule 12 of
Appendix 3 of the
Listing Rules

A shareholder shall enjoy rights and assume obligations according to the class and amount of shares held by him; shareholders who hold shares of the same class shall enjoy equal rights and assume the same class of obligations.

No powers shall be taken to freeze or otherwise impair any of the rights attaching to any share by reason only that the person or persons who have direct or indirect interests therein have failed to disclose such to the Company.

For joint shareholders, upon the death of any joint shareholder, only the surviving shareholder(s) shall be deemed by the Company to have the ownership of the related shares, but the board of directors is entitled to request for the provision of a death certificate as it may deem fit for the purpose of revising the shareholders' register. For joint shareholders of any shares, only the first-named shareholder in the shareholders' register has the right to receive the share certificates for the relevant shares, receive notices from the Company, attend the general meeting and exercise voting rights; and any notice delivered to the said shareholder shall be deemed as if the notice has been delivered to all of the joint shareholders of the relevant shares.

Article 47 The shareholders of ordinary shares of the Company enjoy the following rights:

Article 45 of the
Mandatory
Provisions
Articles 97, 102
of the Company
Law
Rule 19A.50 of
the Listing Rules

- (1) to receive dividends and other forms of distributions of benefits in proportion to their shareholdings;
- (2) to lawfully request, convene, preside over and attend general meetings either in person or by proxy and exercise the corresponding voting right;
- (3) to supervise and manage the Company's business operations, to make proposals and to raise queries;
- (4) to transfer, gift or pledge shares in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and the provisions of the Articles of Association;
- (5) subject to production of the relevant documents evidencing the class and quantity of shares held and verification of their identities as shareholders by the Company, to obtain relevant information in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and the provisions of the Articles of Association, including:
 1. a copy of the Articles of Association, subject to payment of costs;
 2. the right to inspect and copy, subject to payment of a reasonable fee:
 - (1) all parts of the register of shareholders;
 - (2) personal particulars of each of the Company's directors, supervisors, senior management personnel including:
 - (a) present and former names and aliases;
 - (b) principal address (place of residence);
 - (c) nationality;
 - (d) primary and all other part-time occupations and duties;

- (e) identification documents and numbers;
 - (3) the status of the Company's share capital;
 - (4) counterfoil of the Company's debentures;
 - (5) the latest audited financial statements of the Company and reports from the board of directors, the board of supervisors and the auditor;
 - (6) the special resolutions of the Company;
 - (7) the reports of the quantity and par value of securities bought back by the Company since the last account year, the aggregate amount paid therefor, as well as the highest and lowest prices of each class of securities bought back (categorised into domestic shares and foreign-invested shares);
 - (8) the copy of the latest annual report submitted to the State Administration for Industry & Commerce or other competent authorities for filing (where applicable);
 - (9) the minutes of general meetings, resolutions of the board of directors, resolutions of the board of supervisors.
- (6) in the event of the winding-up or liquidation of the Company, to participate in the distribution of remaining assets of the Company in proportion to the number of shares held;
 - (7) to require the Company to buy their shares in the event of objection to resolutions of the general meeting concerning merger or division of the Company;
 - (8) Shareholder(s) individually or jointly holding more than 3% of shares of the Company may submit written provisional proposals to the board of directors 10 days before a general meeting is convened;
 - (9) other rights conferred by laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

Article 48 The shareholders of ordinary shares of the Company shall assume the following obligations:

Article 46 of the
Mandatory
Provisions
Article 20 of the
Company Law

- (1) to comply with laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association;
- (2) to pay subscription money according to the number of shares subscribed and the method of subscription;
- (3) not to surrender the shares unless required by law or administrative regulations;

- (4) not to abuse shareholder's rights and harm the interest of the Company or other shareholders; not to abuse the independent legal person status of the Company and the limited liability of the shareholders to impair the interests of creditors of the Company; where the shareholder's abuse of its power causes damage to other shareholders, he shall be liable to compensation in accordance with laws; where the shareholder has abused the Company's independent legal person status and shareholder's limited liability for debt evasion and caused serious damage to the creditor's interests, it shall bear joint liability for the debts of the Company;
- (5) other obligations imposed by laws, administrative regulations and provisions of the Articles of Association.

Shareholders are not liable to make any further contribution to the share capital other than according to the terms agreed by the subscriber of the relevant shares at the time of subscription.

Article 49 In addition to the obligations imposed by laws, administrative regulations or the listing rules of the stock exchange on which the Company's shares are listed, a controlling shareholder, in exercising its shareholder's rights, shall not exercise his voting rights in respect of the following matters in a manner prejudicial to the interests of all or a portion of the shareholders of the Company:

Article 47 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

- (1) to exempt a director or supervisor from the obligation of acting honestly in the best interests of the Company;
- (2) to approve the expropriation by a director or supervisor (for his own benefit or for the benefit of another person) of the Company's assets in any way, including (but not limited to) opportunities which are beneficial to the Company;
- (3) to approve the expropriation by a director or supervisor (for his own benefit or for the benefit of another person) of the individual interest of other shareholders, including (but not limited to) any rights to distributions and voting rights (excluding a restructuring which has been submitted for approval by the shareholders in a general meeting in accordance with the Articles of Association).

Article 50 For the purpose of the foregoing Article, a "controlling shareholder" means a person who satisfies any one of the following conditions:

Article 48 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

- (1) a person who, when acting alone or in concert with others, has the power to appoint more than half of the directors;
- (2) a person who, when acting alone or in concert with others, has the power to exercise 30% or more of the voting rights or has power to control the exercise of 30% or more of the voting rights in the Company;

- (3) a person who, when acting alone or in concert with others, holds 30% or more of the issued shares of the Company;
- (4) a person who, when acting alone or in concert with others, has de facto control of the Company in any other way.

Chapter 8 General Meeting

Article 51 The general meeting holds the powers of the Company and shall exercise its functions and powers in accordance with laws. Article 49 of the Mandatory Provisions

Article 52 The general meeting shall have the following functions and powers:

- (1) to decide on the Company's operational policies and investment plans;
 - (2) to appoint and replace directors and to decide on matters relating to the remuneration of directors;
 - (3) to appoint and replace supervisors who are not representatives of the employees and to decide on matters relating to the remuneration of supervisors;
 - (4) to consider and approve the board of directors' reports;
 - (5) to consider and approve the board of supervisors' reports;
 - (6) to consider and approve the Company's profit distribution plans and loss recovery plans;
 - (7) to consider and approve the Company's proposed and final annual financial budgets;
 - (8) to pass resolutions on the increase or reduction of the Company's registered capital;
 - (9) to pass resolutions on matters such as merger, division, dissolution, liquidation or change of the corporate form of the Company;
 - (10) to pass resolutions on the issue of shares, issue of debentures and repurchase of shares by the Company;
 - (11) to amend the Articles of Association;
 - (12) to consider motions raised by shareholders, individually or jointly, holding more than 3% of the total number of voting shares of the Company;
- Article 50 of the Mandatory Provisions Articles 99, 121 of the Company Law Article 8 of the Guidelines for the Corporate Governance

- (13) to consider the purchase and sale of major assets or the giving of guarantees not falling within the scope of its principal business within 1 year, with value exceeding 30% of the total assets of the Company as shown in the latest published audited financial statements of the Company;
- (14) to pass resolutions on the appointment, reappointment and dismissal of the accountants of the Company;
- (15) to consider the equity incentive scheme;
- (16) to decide on other matters which, according to laws administrative regulations, or the Articles of Association, need to be approved by shareholders in general meetings;
- (17) any other matters as required by the listing rules of the stock exchange where the shares of the Company are listed.

If necessary and appropriate, the general meeting may authorise the board of directors to decide on matters to be resolved and which cannot or are not required to be decided at the general meeting.

If the board of directors is authorised in a general meeting to determine matters which shall be determined by ordinary resolution, the authorisation should be passed by majority voting rights held by the attending shareholders (including their proxies); if the authorisation relates to matters which shall be determined by special resolution, the authorisation should be passed by attending shareholders (including their proxies) holding more than two-thirds of the voting rights. The terms of the authorisation should be clear and specific.

Article 53 Unless prior approval in the form of a special resolution is obtained in a general meeting, the Company shall not enter into any contract with any person other than the directors, supervisors, senior management personnel pursuant to which such person shall be responsible for the management and administration of the whole or any substantial part of the Company's business. Article 51 of the Mandatory Provisions

Article 54 General meetings are divided into annual general meetings ("AGM") and extraordinary general meetings. General meetings shall be convened by the board of directors. Article 52 of the Mandatory Provisions

AGMs are held once every year and within six months from the end of the preceding accounting year.

Article 55 The board of directors shall convene an extraordinary general meetings within two months after the occurrence of any one of the following events:

Article 52 of the
Mandatory
Provisions
Article 100 of the
Company Law

- (1) where the number of directors is less than the number stipulated in the Company Law or two-thirds of the number specified in the Articles of Association;
- (2) where the unrecovered losses of the Company amount to one-third of the total amount of its paid-up share capital;
- (3) where shareholder(s) who individually or jointly hold more than 10% of the Company's issued voting shares make request(s) in writing for the convening of an extraordinary general meeting;
- (4) whenever the board of directors deems necessary or the board of supervisors so requests;
- (5) other circumstances provided by laws, administrative regulations, rules of competent authorities, listing rules of the stock exchange where the shares of the Company are listed and the Articles of Association.

The shareholdings referred to in item (3) above shall be calculated on the basis of the number of shares held as at the date of written request from the shareholders.

Article 56 A notice of a general meeting shall be given 20 business days before the date of the meeting to all registered shareholders. A notice of an extraordinary general meeting shall be given ten business days or 15 days (whichever is longer) before the date of the meeting to all registered shareholders. Such notice shall give such shareholders notice of the matters to be considered at such meeting, the date and the place of the general meeting.

Article 102 of the
Company Law
Rule 13.39 of the
Listing Rules

In calculating the date of commencement, the Company shall exclude the dates of notice and meeting. The business day as referred to in this Article of Association refer to any day when the Hong Kong Stock Exchange is open for trading in securities.

A general meeting shall be in the form of physical meeting to be held on-site (including but without limitation to video conferencing) or voting by correspondence. So far as required by the regulatory authorities, such meeting may also be held in the form of webcasting or such other manners convenient for shareholders to participate in a general meeting. A shareholder who participates in a general meeting in the aforesaid manners shall be deemed to have been present at the meeting.

Article 57 Matters which are not specified in the notice or supplemental notice shall not be decided at any general meetings.

Article 102 of the
Company Law

Article 58 The notice of a general meeting shall satisfy the following requirements:

- (1) it should be in writing;
- (2) specifies the place, date and time of the meeting;
- (3) sets out the matters to be discussed at the meeting;
- (4) provides the shareholders with such information and explanation as necessary to enable the shareholders to make an informed decision on the proposals put before them. This includes (but is not limited to) where a proposal is made to amalgamate the Company with another, to repurchase shares of the Company, to reorganise its share capital, or to restructure the Company in any other way, the terms of the proposed transaction must be provided in detail together with contracts (if any) and the cause and effect of such proposal must be properly explained;
- (5) contains a disclosure of the nature and extent of the material interests of any director, supervisor, president and other senior management personnel in the proposed transaction and the effect which the proposed transaction will have on them in their capacity as shareholders, if it is different from the effect on the interests of shareholders of the same class;
- (6) contains the full text of any special resolution to be proposed at the meeting;
- (7) contains a clear statement that a shareholder entitled to attend and vote at such meeting is entitled to appoint one or more proxies to attend and vote at such meeting on his behalf and that such proxy needs not be a shareholder;
- (8) specifies the time and place for lodging proxy forms for the meeting;
- (9) the name and telephone number of the usual contact person.

Article 59 Unless otherwise provided by relevant laws, administrative regulations, the listing rules of the stock exchange where the shares of the Company are listed or the Articles of Association, the notice of a general meeting shall be publicly announced and delivered to the shareholders (whether or not such shareholders are entitled to vote at the meeting) by hand or by pre-paid mail to the addresses of the shareholders as shown in the register of shareholders of the Company. For shareholders of domestic shares, the notice of the meeting may also be given by way of public announcement.

The public announcement referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be published in one or more newspapers designated by the securities regulatory authorities of the State Council. Once the announcement is made, all the shareholders of domestic shares shall be deemed to have received the notice of the relevant general meeting. The public announcement of the general meeting shall be issued to the holders of overseas-listed foreign-invested shares on the Company's website and the website designated by the Hong Kong Stock Exchange or in accordance with the requirements of the listing rules, subject to applicable laws, administrative regulations and relevant listing rules. Once the announcement is published, all holders of overseas-listed foreign-invested shares shall be deemed to receive the notice of relevant general meeting.

If a notice of meeting is accidentally omitted to be sent to any person who is entitled to receive the same or that person has not received such a notice of meeting, it will not cause the meeting and any resolution made therein to be void.

Article 60 Any shareholder who is entitled to attend and vote at a general meeting of the Company shall be entitled to appoint one or more persons (whether such person is a shareholder or not) as his proxy or proxies to attend and vote on his behalf, and a proxy so appointed shall be entitled to exercise the following rights pursuant to the authorisation from that shareholder: Article 59 of the Mandatory Provisions

- (1) the shareholders' right to speak at the meeting;
- (2) the right to demand or join in demanding a poll;
- (3) unless otherwise provided by applicable laws, administrative regulations, rules of competent authorities, listing rules of the stock exchange where the shares of the Company are listed or other securities laws and regulations, the right to vote by hand or on a poll, but a proxy of a shareholder who has appointed more than one proxy may only vote on a poll.

Article 61 The instrument appointing a proxy to attend the general meeting shall be in writing and shall be under the hand of the appointor or his attorney duly authorised in writing, or if the appointor is a legal person, either under its seal or under the hand of a director or a duly authorised attorney. Article 60 of the Mandatory Provisions

Article 62 The proxy form shall be lodged at the Company's premises or such other place as specified in the notice convening the meeting at least 24 hours prior to the relevant meeting for which the proxy is appointed to vote or 24 hours prior to the scheduled voting time. Where the proxy form is signed by a person authorised by the principal, the power of attorney or other authorisation documents shall be notarised. The notarised power of attorney and other authorisation documents, together with the proxy form, shall be lodged at the Company's premises or such other place as specified in the notice convening the meeting. Article 61 of the Mandatory Provisions

If the proxy is a legal person, his legal representative or any representative authorised by the board of directors or by other decision-making body shall attend the general meeting of the Company on its behalf.

If the said shareholder is a recognised clearing house (or its agent), the shareholder may authorise one or more suitable persons to act as its representative at any general meeting or any class meetings of shareholders; however, if more than one person are authorised, the proxy form shall clearly indicate the number and types of shares each person is authorised in relation to. The persons after such authorisation may represent the recognised clearing house (or its agent) to exercise the rights, as if they were the individual shareholders of the Company.

Article 63 Any form given to a shareholder by the directors for use by such shareholder for the appointment of a proxy to attend and vote at meetings of the Company shall be such as to enable the shareholder to freely instruct the proxy to vote in favour of or against the motions, separate instructions being given in respect of each matter to be voted on at the meeting. Such a form shall contain a statement that, in the absence of specific instructions from the shareholder, the proxy may vote as he thinks fit. Article 62 of the Mandatory Provisions

Article 64 A vote made in accordance with the terms of a proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the death or loss of capacity of the appointor or revocation of the proxy or the authority under which the proxy was executed, or the transfer of the shares in respect of which the proxy is given, provided that the Company does not receive any written notice in respect of such matters before the commencement of the relevant meeting. Article 63 of the Mandatory Provisions

Article 65 The shareholders who request to convene an extraordinary general meetings or class meeting shall follow the following procedures: Articles 100, 101 of the Company Law

- (1) Shareholders who separately or jointly hold more than 10% of the voting shares of the Company may request the board of directors to convene an extraordinary general meetings or class meeting by signing a written request (signing in counterparts is acceptable) explaining the matters to be discussed at the extraordinary general meetings. The above shareholders shall ensure that the contents of the proposal are in compliance with the requirements of laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association. The board of directors shall convene an extraordinary general meetings or class meeting as soon as practicable upon receipt of the foresaid written request. The shareholdings of the requesting shareholders shall be calculated as at the date of the submission of the written requirement. Article 72 of the Mandatory Provisions

- (2) In the event that the board of directors cannot or fails to perform its duty to convene a meeting, the board of supervisors shall convene and chair the meeting promptly; if the board of supervisors fails to convene and chair the meeting for more than 90 consecutive days, shareholders who separately or jointly hold more than 10% of the voting shares of the Company may convene and chair the meeting themselves.

If the shareholders call and convene a meeting by themselves since the board of directors cannot convene a meeting in accordance with the foresaid requirement, the expenses reasonably incurred shall be borne by the Company and be deducted from the amounts due to the defaulting directors.

Article 66 Shareholders who separately or jointly hold more than 3% of the voting shares of the Company may submit a proposal to the board of directors in writing 10 days before the date of the general meeting; the board of directors shall notify other shareholders within two days of receiving the proposal and include it for consideration at the general meeting. The matters stated in the proposal must be within the functions and powers of the general meeting and it shall have a clear subject and specific resolutions. Article 102 of the Company Law

Apart from aforesaid matters, the convener shall not amend the proposals stated in the notice of the general meeting or add new proposals upon issuance of the announcement on the notice of the general meeting.

Article 67 The general meeting shall be convened by the board of directors and chaired by the chairman; if the chairman cannot or fails to perform his duties, the general meeting shall be chaired by a director co-elected by more than half of the directors. If the board of directors cannot or fails to perform its duty to convene the general meeting, the board of supervisors shall convene and chair the meeting promptly; if the board of supervisors cannot or fails to perform its duty to convene the general meeting for more than 90 consecutive days, the shareholders who separately or jointly hold more than 10% of the Company's voting shares may convene and chair the meeting by themselves; if a chairman of the meeting cannot be elected, the general meeting shall be chaired by any person elected by the shareholders present; if the shareholders cannot elect a chairman due to any reason, the shareholder (including his proxy) present at the meeting who holds the highest number of voting rights shall act as the chairman of the meeting. Article 101 of the Company Law
Article 73 of the Mandatory Provisions

Article 68 A shareholder (including a proxy), when voting at a general meeting, may exercise such voting rights as are attached to the voting shares which he represents. Each share shall have one vote. Article 65 of the Mandatory Provisions
Article 103 of the Company Law

No voting rights shall attach to the Company's shares held by itself, and such shares shall be excluded for the purpose of calculating the total number of voting shares held by the shareholders present at the general meeting.

Where any shareholder, under applicable laws, regulations and the listing rules of the stock exchange on which the Company's shares are listed, is required to abstain from voting on any particular resolution or is required to vote only for or only against any particular resolution, any votes cast by or on behalf of such shareholder in contravention of such requirement or restriction shall not be counted.

Article 69 At any general meeting, a resolution shall be decided on a show of hands, unless a poll is demanded before or after a vote is carried out by a show of hands by any of the following, or if otherwise required by the listing rules of the stock exchanges on which the Company's shares are listed: Article 66 of the Mandatory Provisions

- (1) by the chairman of the meeting;
- (2) by at least two shareholders present in person or by proxy and being entitled to vote;
- (3) by one or more shareholders present in person or by proxy and holding more than 10% of all voting shares present at the meeting solely or jointly.

Unless a poll is demanded, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has been passed on a show of hands and the record of such in the minutes of the meeting shall be conclusive evidence of the passing of such resolution. There is no need to prove the number or proportion of votes in favour of or against such resolution.

The demand for a poll may be withdrawn by the person who demands the same.

Article 70 A poll demanded to decide on the chairman of the meeting, or to adjourn the meeting shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time as the chairman of the meeting directs, and any other business may be proceeded with, pending the taking of the poll. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be a resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded. Article 67 of the Mandatory Provisions

Article 71 On a poll taken at a meeting, a shareholder (including a proxy) entitled to two or more votes need not cast all his votes in the same way. Article 68 of the Mandatory Provisions

Article 72 In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting shall have a casting vote. Article 69 of the Mandatory Provisions

Article 73 Resolutions of general meetings shall be divided into ordinary resolutions and special resolutions. Article 64 of the Mandatory Provisions

An ordinary resolution must be passed by more than half of all votes held by the shareholders (including their proxies) present at the meeting.

A special resolution must be passed by more than two-thirds of all votes held by the shareholders (including their proxies) present at the meeting.

Article 74 The following matters shall be resolved by an ordinary resolution at a general meeting: Article 70 of the Mandatory Provisions

- (2) the issue of debentures of the Company;
- (3) the division, merger, dissolution, liquidation or change of corporate form of the Company;
- (4) amendment of the Articles of Association;
- (5) any purchase or disposal of substantial assets by the Company or the giving of guarantees not falling within the scope of its principal business, within one year, the amount of which exceeds 30% of the total assets as presented in the latest audited financial statements of the Company;
- (6) any other matters required by law, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association, and those considered by the shareholders in general meeting and resolved by way of an ordinary resolution, to be of a nature which have a material impact on the Company and should be adopted by special resolutions.

Article 76 The chairman of the meeting shall be responsible for determining whether a resolution has been passed. His decision, which shall be final and conclusive, shall be announced at the meeting and recorded in the minutes. Article 74 of the Mandatory Provisions Article 9 of the Guidelines for the Corporate Governance

Any important resolutions at a general meeting shall be timely reported to the regulatory authorities.

Article 77 If the chairman of the meeting has any doubt as to the result of a resolution which has been put to vote at a general meeting, he may have the votes counted. If the chairman of the meeting has not counted the votes, any shareholder who is present in person or by proxy and who objects to the result announced by the chairman of the meeting may, immediately after the declaration of the result, demand that the votes be counted and the chairman of the meeting shall have the votes counted immediately.

Article 75 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

Article 78 If votes are counted at a general meeting, the result of the count shall be recorded in the minutes.

Article 76 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

Article 79 Minutes of meetings shall be kept for general meetings, and the secretary to the board of directors shall be responsible for such minutes. Minutes of meetings shall be signed by the chairman of the meetings, attending directors and supervisors, the secretary to the board of directors and the convener of the meeting or his proxy. The minutes of meetings shall be kept at the Company's place of residence together with the shareholders' attendance lists and proxy forms for the Company's records.

Article 107 of the
Company Law

Article 80 Copies of the minutes of proceedings of any general meeting shall, during business hours of the Company, be open for inspection by any shareholder without charge. If a shareholder requests a copy of such minutes from the Company, the Company shall send a copy of such minutes to him within seven days after receipt of reasonable fees.

Article 77 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

Article 81 Where any shareholder is, under the Company Law, Listing Rules or other requirements of laws, regulations or rules, required to abstain from voting on any particular resolutions or restricted to voting only for or only against any particular resolution, any votes cast by or on behalf of such shareholder in contravention of such requirement or restriction shall not be counted.

Article 14 of
Appendix 3 of the
Listing Rules

Chapter 9 Special Procedures for Voting at Class Meeting

Article 82 Those shareholders who hold different classes of shares are class shareholders.

Article 78 of the
Mandatory
Provisions
Article 10(1),
10(2) of Appendix
3 of the Listing
Rules

Class shareholders shall enjoy rights and assume obligations in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association and its appendices.

Where the capital of the Company includes shares which do not carry voting rights, the words "non-voting" must appear in the designation of such shares.

Where the equity capital of the Company includes shares with different voting rights, the designation of each class of shares, other than those with the most favourable voting rights, must include the words "restricted voting" or "limited voting".

Article 83 Rights conferred on any class of shareholders (“Class Rights”) may not be varied or cancelled save with the approval of a special resolution of shareholders in a general meeting and by holders of shares of that class at a separate meeting conducted in accordance with Articles 84 to 88 hereof. Article 79 of the Mandatory Provisions

Article 84 The following circumstances shall be deemed to be variation or cancellation of the rights attaching to a particular class of shares: Article 80 of the Mandatory Provisions

- (1) to increase or decrease the number of shares of that class, or to increase or decrease the number of shares of a class having equal or better voting, distribution or other rights to those of shares of that class;
- (2) to exchange all or part of the shares of that class for shares of another class or to exchange or to create a right to exchange all or part of the shares of another class for shares of that class;
- (3) to remove or reduce rights to accrued dividends or to cumulative dividends attaching to shares of that class;
- (4) to reduce or remove preferential rights attaching to shares of that class to receive dividends or to the distribution of assets in the event that the Company is liquidated;
- (5) to add, remove or reduce conversion privileges, options, voting rights, transfer or pre-emptive rights, or rights to acquire securities of the Company attaching to shares of that class;
- (6) to remove or reduce rights to receive payment from the Company in specific currencies attaching to shares of that class;
- (7) to create a new class of shares having equal or better voting, distribution or other rights to those of the shares of that class;
- (8) to impose or increase restrictions on the transfer of ownership of shares of that class;
- (9) to issue rights to subscribe for, or to convert the existing shares into, shares in the Company of that class or another class;
- (10) to increase the rights or privileges of shares of another class;
- (11) to restructure the Company in such a way so as to result in the disproportionate distribution of obligations between the various classes of shareholders;
- (12) to vary or abrogate the provisions of this Chapter.

Article 85 Affected class shareholders, whether or not otherwise having the right to vote at general meetings, have the right to vote at class meetings in respect of matters concerning sub-paragraphs (2) to (8), (11) and (12) of Article 83 hereof, but interested shareholder(s) shall not be entitled to vote at such class meetings. Article 81 of the Mandatory Provisions

“Interested shareholder(s)”, as such term is used in the preceding paragraph, means:

- (1) in the case of a repurchase of shares by way of a general offer to all shareholders of the Company or by way of an on-market repurchase pursuant to Article 25, an interested shareholder is a “controlling shareholder” within the meaning of Article 50;
- (2) in the case of a repurchase of shares by an off-market agreement pursuant to Article 25 hereof, a holder of the shares to which the proposed agreement relates;
- (3) in the case of a restructuring of the Company, a shareholder who assumes a relatively lower proportion of obligations than the obligations imposed on shareholders of the same class under the proposed restructuring or who has an interest in the proposed restructuring different from the general interests of the shareholders of that class.

Article 86 Resolutions of a class of shareholders shall be passed by votes representing more than two-thirds of the voting rights of shareholders of that class represented at the relevant meeting who, according to Article 84, are entitled to vote. Article 82 of the Mandatory Provisions

Article 87 A written notice of a class meeting shall be given to all shareholders who are registered as holders of that class in the register of shareholders in accordance with Article 56 of these Articles of Association in respect to the requirements of notice period for general meetings to be convened. Such notice shall give such shareholders notice of the matters to be considered at such meeting, the date and the place of the class meeting. Article 102 of the Company Law Rule 13.39 of the Listing Rules

Article 88 Notice of class meetings need only be served on shareholders entitled to vote at the meetings. Article 84 of the Mandatory Provisions

Class meetings shall be conducted in the same manner as general meetings, to the extent possible. The provisions of the Articles of Association and its appendices relating to the manner for the conduct of general meetings are also applicable to class meetings.

Article 89 Apart from the holders of other classes of shares, the holders of the domestic shares and holders of overseas-listed foreign-invested shares shall be deemed to be holders of different classes of shares. Article 85 of the Mandatory Provisions Section 1(f) of Appendix 13D of the Listing Rules

The special procedures for approval by a class of shareholders shall not apply in the following circumstances:

- (1) where the Company issues, upon the approval by special resolution of its shareholders in a general meeting, either separately or concurrently once every 12 months, not more than 20% of each of its existing issued domestic shares and overseas-listed foreign-invested shares;
- (2) where the Company's plan to issue domestic shares and overseas-listed foreign-invested shares at the time of its establishment is carried out within 15 months from the date of approval of the securities regulatory authorities of the State Council.

Article 108 Meetings of the board of directors shall be held only if a majority of all the directors (including any director who has authorized other directors in writing to attend the meeting on behalf of him) are present. Article 93 of the Mandatory Provisions

Each director shall have one vote. Resolutions made by the board of directors must be approved by a majority of all the directors.

Article 109 The directors shall attend the board of directors' meeting in person. In the event that directors are unable to attend the meeting for some reason, the directors may appoint in writing other directors to attend the board meetings. The proxy letter shall specify the proxy's name, authorized matters, scope of authorization and the valid term, and shall be affixed with the signature or seal of the principal. Article 94 of the Mandatory Provisions

The director who attends the meeting on behalf of another director shall exercise the right of the director within the scope of authorization. If any director fails to attend the meeting of the board of directors or authorize a proxy to be present on his behalf, such director shall be deemed to have waived his voting rights at that meeting.

Article 110 If a director is connected (as defined under the Listing Rules) to any third party, he shall not cast vote himself or on behalf of other directors on any transaction between the Company and that third party; such director shall not be counted in the quorum of the relevant meeting. Where the number of the directors who can vote on this matter is less than three, such issue shall be submitted to the shareholders' general meeting for voting. Article 124 of the Company Law Rule 4(1) of Appendix 3 to the Listing Rules

Article 111 If a substantial shareholder (holding 10% or more shares) or a director has a material conflict of interest in a matter to be considered by the board of directors, the matter should be dealt with by way of the meeting of the board of directors (rather than by written resolution). Also, the independent non-executive directors and their close associates who do not have material interest in such matter should attend the meeting. A.1.7 of Corporate Governance Code of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange

Article 112 Matters determined in a board meeting shall be recorded in minutes of meetings. Minutes of meetings shall be signed by directors attending such meetings and the recorder. Directors shall be liable for board resolutions. If a board resolution is against the law, administrative rules or these Articles of Association and resolutions of the shareholders' general meetings, which causes the Company to suffer any loss, the directors who participate in voting shall assume the liability to compensate the Company; directors who have been proved as having expressed dissenting opinions on the resolution during the voting as recorded in the minutes of meeting shall be exempted from liability. Article 95 of the Mandatory Provisions Article 18 of the Guidelines for the Corporate Governance

Any material resolutions by the board of directors shall be reported to regulatory authority.

Chapter 11 Executive Committee

Article 113 The Company shall set up an executive committee which is responsible for decisions on the day-to-day operation and management of the Company under the leadership of the board of directors.

The executive committee shall be composed of five to nine members including one chairman or chairlady. The chairman of the board of directors, president, vice president, chief financial officer, risk management director, and secretary to the board of directors shall be the members, and the rest members shall be determined by the chairman or chairlady.

Article 114 The meeting of the executive committee shall be convened and presided over by the chairman or chairlady. If the chairman or chairlady fails to perform his/her duties due to special reasons, the chairman or chairlady shall appoint another member to convene and preside over the meeting.

Members of the executive committee shall attend the meetings in person. If a member is unable to attend a meeting, he/she may entrust another member in writing to attend on his behalf.

At the meeting of the executive committee, the matters set out in the agenda shall be resolved one by one by voting. Each member shall have one vote on each resolution considered at the meeting of the executive committee. In the case of an equality of votes for and against a resolution, whether it is by show of hands or a poll, the chairman or chairlady of the meeting shall be entitled to an additional vote.

Resolutions of the executive committee shall be passed by simple majority of all members. Resolutions in respect of material matters shall be passed by two-third or above of the votes of all members.

Article 115 The executive committee shall perform the following duties:

- (1) to implement the decisions, resolutions, policies, operational policies and development plan of the board of directors and to decide on the major issues relating to the Company's operation and management;
- (2) to organise the implementation of annual plan, budget and investment plans of the Company;

A director, supervisor or senior management personnel of the Company is deemed to be interested in a contract, transaction or arrangement in which his associate is interested.

Article 149 Where a director, supervisor or senior management personnel of the Company gives to the board of directors a notice in writing stating that, by reason of the facts specified in the notice, he is interested in contracts, transactions or arrangements which may subsequently be made by the Company, that notice shall be deemed for the purposes of the preceding Article to be a sufficient disclosure of his interests, so far as the content stated in such notice is concerned, provided that such notice shall have been given before the date on which the question of entering into the relevant contract, transaction or arrangement is first taken into consideration by the Company.

Article 121 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

Article 150 The Company shall not pay taxes for or on behalf of a director, supervisor or senior management personnel in any manner.

Article 122 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

Article 151 The Company shall not directly or indirectly make a loan to or provide any guarantee in connection with the making of a loan to a director, supervisor or senior management personnel of the Company or its holding company or any of their respective associates.

Article 123 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

The foregoing prohibition shall not apply to the following circumstances:

- (1) provision of a loan or loan guarantees by the Company to its subsidiary;
- (2) the provision by the Company of a loan or a guarantee in connection with the making of a loan or other payment to its directors, supervisors, senior management personnel to meet expenditure incurred or to be incurred by him for the purposes of the Company or for the purpose of enabling him to perform his duties properly, in accordance with the terms of service contracts approved by the shareholders in general meetings;
- (3) if the ordinary course of business of the Company includes providing loans or guarantees, the Company may make a loan to or provide a guarantee in connection with the making of a loan to a director, supervisor, senior management personnel or his associates in the ordinary course of its business on normal commercial terms.

Article 152 Any person who receives funds from a loan which has been made by the Company acting in breach of the preceding Article shall, irrespective of the terms and conditions of the loan, forthwith repay such funds.

Article 124 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

Article 153 A guarantee for the repayment of a loan which has been provided by the Company acting in breach of Article 151(1) shall not be enforceable against the Company, save in respect of the following circumstances:

Article 125 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

- (1) the guarantee was provided in connection with a loan which was made to an associate of a director, supervisor, and senior management personnel of the Company or the Company's parent company and the lender of such funds was not aware of the relevant circumstances when making the loan;

- (2) the collateral which has been provided by the Company has already been lawfully disposed of by the lender to a bona fide purchaser.

Article 154 For the purposes of the foregoing provisions of this Chapter, a “guarantee” includes an undertaking or property provided to secure the obligor’s performance of his obligations. Article 126 of the Mandatory Provisions

Article 155 In addition to any rights and remedies provided by the laws and administrative regulations, where a director, supervisor or senior management personnel of the Company breaches the duties which he owes to the Company, the Company has a right: Article 127 of the Mandatory Provisions

- (1) to demand such a director, supervisor or senior management personnel to compensate the Company for its losses sustained as a result of such breach;
- (2) to rescind any contract or transaction which has been entered into between the Company and such a director, supervisor or senior management personnel or entered into between the Company and a third party (where such third party knew or should have known that such a director, supervisor or senior management personnel representing the Company has breached his duties owed to the Company);
- (3) to demand such a director, supervisor or senior management personnel to surrender the gains made as result of the breach of his obligations;
- (4) to recover any monies which should have been received by the Company and which were received by such a director, supervisor or senior Management personnel instead, including (without limitation to) commissions;
- (5) to demand repayment of interest earned or which may have been earned by a director, supervisor or senior management personnel on money that should have been paid to the Company.

Article 156 If a director, supervisor or a senior management personnel has violated the law, administrative rules, regulations of the competent authorities or these Articles of Association in performing his duties thereby causing losses to the Company, he shall be liable for compensation. Article 149 of the Company Law

Article 157 The Company shall enter into written contract with a director or supervisor in relation to emoluments, which shall be approved in advance by the shareholders in a general meeting. The aforesaid emoluments include: Article 128 of the Mandatory Provisions

- (1) emoluments in respect of his service as director, supervisor, or senior management personnel of the Company;

- (2) emoluments in respect of his service as a director, supervisor or senior management personnel of any subsidiary of the Company;
- (3) emoluments in respect of the provision of other services in connection with the management of the Company and any of its subsidiaries;
- (4) payment by way of compensation for loss of office, or as consideration for or in connection with his retirement from office.

No proceedings may be brought by a director or supervisor against the Company for anything due to him except pursuant to the preceding contracts.

Article 158 The contract concerning the emoluments between the Company and its directors or supervisors should provide that in the event that the Company is acquired, the Company's directors and supervisors shall, subject to the prior approval of shareholders in a general meeting, have the right to receive compensation or other payment for his loss of office or retirement. For the purposes of this paragraph, the acquisition of the Company includes any of the following:

Article 129 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

- (1) an acquisition offer made by any person to the general body of shareholders;
- (2) an acquisition offer made by any person with a view to the offeror becoming a "controlling shareholder" within the meaning of Article 50 hereof.

If the relevant director or supervisor does not comply with this Article, any payment so received by him shall belong to those persons who have sold their shares as a result of the aforementioned offer. The expenses incurred in distributing such payment on a pro rata basis amongst such persons shall be borne by the relevant director or supervisor and shall not be deducted from such payment.

Chapter 16 Financial Accounting System, Distribution of Profits and Auditing

Article 159 The Company shall establish its financial and accounting systems in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and PRC enterprise accounting standards formulated by the finance regulatory department of the State Council.

Article 130 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

Article 160 The accounting year of the Company shall adopt the calendar year, i.e. starting from the 1 January of every calendar year and ending on 31 December of every calendar year.

Article 131 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

At the end of each fiscal year, the Company shall prepare a financial report which shall be examined and verified in a manner prescribed by law by a qualified accountant.

Article 161 The board of directors of the Company shall submit to the shareholders at every AGM such financial reports which the relevant laws, administrative regulations and directives promulgated by competent regional and central governmental authorities require the Company to prepare. The Company shall make up its annual accounts to a date falling not more than 6 months before the date of annual general meeting.

Article 132 of the Mandatory Provisions Rule 13.46(2)(b) to the Listing Rules

Article 162 The Company's financial reports shall be made available for shareholders' inspection at the Company 20 days before the date of every shareholders' annual general meeting. Each shareholder shall be entitled to have a copy of the financial reports referred to in this Chapter.

Article 133 of the Mandatory Provisions Rule 13.46(2)(a) to the Listing Rules Article 5 of Appendix 3 and Rule 19A.48 to the Listing Rules

The Company shall deliver or send to each shareholder of Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares by way of the methods provided in these Articles of Association or by prepaid mail at the address registered in the register of shareholders the aforementioned reports no later than 21 days prior to the date of every annual general meeting of the shareholders.

Article 163 The financial statements of the Company shall, in addition to being prepared in accordance with PRC enterprise accounting standards and regulations, be prepared in accordance with international accounting standards, or the accounting standards of the place overseas where the Company's shares are listed. If there is any material difference between the financial statements prepared respectively in accordance with the two accounting standards, such difference shall be stated in the notes to the financial statements. In distributing its profits after tax for the relevant fiscal year, the lower of the two amounts shown in the financial statements shall be adopted.

Article 134 of the Mandatory Provisions

Article 164 Any interim results of operation or financial information published or disclosed by the Company shall also be prepared in accordance with PRC enterprise accounting standards and regulations, and also in accordance with international accounting standards or the accounting standards of the place overseas where the Company's shares are listed.

Article 135 of the Mandatory Provisions

Article 165 The Company shall publish its financial reports twice in each fiscal year, that is, the interim financial report shall be published within 60 days after the end of the first six months of each fiscal year; and the annual financial report shall be published within 120 days after the end of each fiscal year.

Article 136 of the Mandatory Provisions

If there are other requirements imposed by the stock regulators in the place where the Company's shares are listed, such requirements shall prevail.

Article 166 The Company shall not keep accounts other than those required by law. Assets of the Company will not be deposited into any account opened in the name of an individual.

Article 137 of the Mandatory Provisions

Article 167 When distributing the after-tax profits for the current year, the Company shall allocate ten percent of its profits to the statutory common reserve fund. In the event that the accumulated statutory common reserve fund of the Company has reached more than 50 percent of the registered capital of the Company, no allocation will be required.

In the event that the statutory common reserve fund of the Company is insufficient to make up the losses of the Company for the previous year, before allocating the statutory common reserve fund in accordance with the stipulations of the previous paragraph, the Company shall first make up the losses by using the profits for the current year.

After allocating the after-tax profits of the Company to the statutory common reserve fund, the Company can allocate such profits to its arbitrary common reserve fund according to the resolution of shareholders' general meeting.

The profits distributable to the shareholders for the current year, upon the approval in the shareholders' general meeting, shall be distributed in accordance with the proportion of shares held by the shareholders.

Article 168 Before making-up the losses, allocating the statutory common reserve funds, the Company shall not distribute the dividends or carry out other distribution by way of bonus, where distribution had been completed, the shareholders shall return the profits distributed in breach of the regulations to the Company.

The Company shall not participate in the profit distribution for holding its own shares.

Article 169 Capital common reserve fund includes the following items:

- (1) premium on shares issued at a premium price;
- (2) any other income designated for the capital common reserve fund by the regulations of the finance regulatory department of the State Council.

Article 170 The common reserve fund of the Company shall be applied for compensating the losses, expansion of production and operation, or conversion into the capital of the Company. However, the capital common reserve fund of the Company shall not be used to offset loss of the Company.

When the statutory common reserve fund is converted into capital of the Company, the balance of the statutory common reserve fund may not fall below 25 percent of the Company's registered capital prior to such conversions.

Article 171 The Company may distribute dividends in the following manner:

- (1) Cash;
- (2) Shares;

- (3) other means permitted by laws, administrative rules, regulations of competent authorities and regulatory provisions in the place where the Company's shares are listed.

Article 172 The Company shall pay cash dividends and other payments which are payable to holders of Domestic-Invested Shares in Renminbi. The Company shall calculate and declare cash dividends and other payments which are payable to holders of Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares in Renminbi, and shall make such payments in foreign currencies. As for the foreign currency needed by the Company for payment of cash dividends and other payments which are payable to the holders of the Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares, it shall be handled in accordance with any related national regulations on foreign exchange control.

Article 27 of the Special Regulations Rule 3(1) of Appendix 3 to the Listing Rules

Any amount paid up in advance of calls on any shares may carry interest but the holder of such shares shall not be entitled to participate in respect thereof in a subsequent dividend declaration.

Article 173 In the event of distributing the dividends to shareholders of the Company, the payable taxes on the dividend incomes of the shareholders shall be withdrawn in accordance with the requirements of Taxation Law of China and in consideration of the amount distributed.

Article 174 The Company shall appoint receiving agents for holders of the Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares. Such receiving agents shall receive dividends which have been declared by the Company and all other amounts which the Company should pay to holders of Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares on such shareholders' behalf.

Article 140 of the Mandatory Provisions Article 8 of the Circular of Supplemental Comments Rules 3(2) and 13(2) of Appendix 3, Section 1(c) of Appendix 13D and Rule 19A.47 to the Listing Rules

The receiving agents appointed by the Company shall meet the relevant requirements of the laws of the place where the Company's shares are listed or the relevant regulations of such stock exchange.

The receiving agents appointed for holders of Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares listed in Hong Kong shall each be a company registered as a trust company under the Trustee Ordinance of Hong Kong.

In respect of dividends distributed to shareholders, the Company, subject to the requirements of the relevant stock exchanges, has the power to forfeit unclaimed dividends but such power shall not be exercised until the expiration of relevant period.

When permitted by laws, the Company has the power to sell the shares of a shareholder who is untraceable under the following circumstances:

- (1) during a period of 12 years at least three dividends in respect of the shares in question have become payable and no dividend during that period has been claimed; and

- (2) on expiry of such 12 years the Company gives notice of its intention to sell the shares by way of an advertisement published in the newspapers and notifies the Hong Kong Stock Exchange of such intention.

Chapter 17 Appointment of an Accounting Firm

Article 175 The Company shall appoint an independent firm of accountants which is qualified under the relevant regulations of the State to audit the Company's annual financial report and review other financial reports of the Company. Article 141 of the Mandatory Provisions

The first accounting firm of the Company may be appointed by the founders' meeting before the first shareholders' annual meeting. The term of appointment of the accounting firm shall terminate at the end of the first shareholders' annual meeting.

If the founders' meeting does not exercise its duties and powers according to the aforementioned provisions, then the board of directors shall exercise its duties and powers.

Article 176 The accounting firm appointed by the Company shall hold office from the conclusion of the annual general meeting of shareholders at which it was appointed until the conclusion of the next annual general meeting of shareholders. Article 142 of the Mandatory Provisions

Article 177 The accounting firm appointed by the Company shall be entitled to the following rights: Article 143 of the Mandatory Provisions

- (1) to review the books, records or vouchers of the Company at any time, the right to require the directors, supervisors, and senior management personnel of the Company to provide relevant information and explanations;
- (2) to require the Company to take all reasonable steps to obtain from its subsidiaries such information and explanation as are necessary for the performance of its duties as an accounting firm;
- (3) to attend to shareholders' general meetings and to receive all notices of, and other communications relating to, any shareholders' general meeting which any shareholder is entitled to receive, and to speak at any shareholders' general meeting in relation to matters concerning its role as the Company's accounting firm.

Article 178 If there is a vacancy in the position of the accounting firm, the board of directors may appoint an accounting firm to fill such vacancy before the convening of the shareholders' general meeting. Any other accounting firm which has been appointed by the Company may continue to act during the period when such a vacancy arises. Article 144 of the Mandatory Provisions

Article 179 The shareholders' general meeting may by ordinary resolution remove the accounting firm before the expiration of its term of office, irrespective of the provisions in the contract between the Company and the accounting firm. However, the right of the accounting firm in claiming for damages which arise from its removal shall not be affected thereby.

Article 180 The remuneration of an accounting firm or the manner in which such firm is to be remunerated shall be determined by the shareholders in a general meeting. The remuneration of an accounting firm appointed by the board of directors shall be determined by the board of directors.

Article 181 The Company's appointment, removal or non-reappointment of an accounting firm shall be resolved by the shareholders in a general meeting. Such resolution shall be filed with the securities authority of the State Council.

Where a resolution at a general meeting of shareholders is passed to appoint an accounting firm other than an incumbent accounting firm, to fill a casual vacancy in the office of the accounting firm, to reappoint an accounting firm who was appointed by the board of directors to fill a casual vacancy or to remove an accounting firm before expiry of its term of office, the following provisions shall apply:

- (1) A copy of the appointment or removal proposal shall be sent (before issue of the notice of shareholders' general meeting) to the firm proposed to be appointed or proposing to leave its post or the firm which has left its post in the relevant fiscal year. Reference as leaving herein includes leaving by removal, resignation and retirement.
- (2) If the accounting firm leaving its post makes representations in writing and requests the Company to give the shareholders notice of such representations, the Company shall (unless the representations have been received too late) take the following measures:
 1. in any notice to shareholders for the resolution, state the fact of the representations having been made by the accounting firm leaving its post; and
 2. attach a copy of the representations to the notice and deliver it to the shareholders in the manner stipulated in these Articles of Association.
- (3) If the Company fails to circulate the accounting firm's representations in the manner set out in sub-paragraph (2) above, such accounting firm may (in addition to its right to be heard) require that the representations be made at the shareholders' general meeting.

- (4) An accounting firm which is leaving its post shall be entitled to attend to the following shareholders' general meetings:
1. the general meeting at which its term of office would otherwise have expired;
 2. the general meeting at which it is proposed to fill the vacancy caused by its removal; and
 3. the general meeting which is convened as a result of its voluntary resignation.

The accounting firm which is leaving its post has the right to receive all notices of, and other communications relating to, any such meeting, and to speak at any such meeting which it attends on any part of the business of the meeting which concerns it as the former accounting firm of the Company.

Article 182 Prior notice of 15 days should be given to the accounting firm if the Company decides to remove such accounting firm or not to renew the appointment thereof. Such accounting firm shall be entitled to make representations at the shareholders' general meeting. Where the accounting firm resigns from its position, it shall make clear to the shareholders in a general meeting whether there has been any impropriety on the part of the Company.

Article 148 of the
Mandatory
Provisions
Article 10 of the
Circular of Supplemental
Comments
Section 1e(ii),
e(iii) and e(iv) of Appendix 13D to
the Listing Rules

An accounting firm may resign its office by depositing at the Company's domicile a resignation notice which shall become effective on the date of such deposit or on such later date as may be stipulated in such notice. Such notice shall contain the following statements:

- (1) a statement to the effect that there are no circumstances connected with its resignation which it considers should be brought to the notice of the shareholders or creditors of the Company; or
- (2) a statement of any such circumstances.

Where a notice is deposited under the preceding sub-paragraph, the Company shall within 14 days send a copy of the notice to the relevant competent authority. If the notice contains a statement under the preceding sub-paragraph (2), a copy of such statement shall be delivered by prepaid mail to every shareholder who is entitled to financial report of the Company at the address registered in the register of shareholders.

Where the accounting firm's notice of resignation contains a statement in respect of the above, it may require the board of directors to convene a shareholders' extraordinary general meeting for the purpose of receiving an explanation of the circumstances connected with its resignation.

Article 162 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

Chapter 22 Notice

Article 202 Notices, communications or any other written materials of the Company may be sent out by the following means:

Rule 2.07C to the
Listing Rules
Rules 7(1) and
7(2) of Appendix
3 to the Listing
Rules

- (1) by hand;
- (2) by post;
- (3) by fax or email;
- (4) by making announcements in the Company's website and the websites designated by Hong Kong Stock Exchange provided that doing so will be in compliance with laws, administrative regulations and listing rules of the place of listing;
- (5) by public announcements;
- (6) other manners as recognized by securities regulatory authorities at the place where the Company's shares are listed or as provided in these Articles of Association.

Whilst these Articles of Association may have otherwise provided for the delivery methods of any notice, communication or any other written material, the Company may publish its communications by the means specified in sub-paragraph (4) of this Article to replace the means of sending written documents to each holder of the Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares by hand or by prepaid mail provided that doing so will be in compliance with the relevant regulations of securities regulatory authorities in the places of listing. The said communications refer to any documents sent or to be sent by the Company to the shareholders for reference or taking action, including but not limited to report of the board of directors (together with balance sheet and income statement), annual report (including annual financial reports), interim report (including interim financial reports), listing documents, meeting notice, circulars, proxy forms and reply slips, etc.

Article 203 When the Company is required to send, mail, pass, deliver, issue or provide relevant documents of the Company in both English and Chinese according to the relevant requirements of the securities regulatory authorities at the place where the Company's shares are listed, if the Company has made appropriate arrangement to ensure whether its shareholders expect to receive an English copy only or a Chinese copy only, the Company may (based on the intention clearly presented by its shareholders) send an English copy or Chinese copy only to relevant shareholders within the scope permitted by applicable laws and regulations and in accordance with such applicable laws and regulations.

Article 204 If a notice of meeting is accidentally omitted to be sent to any person who is entitled to receive the same or that person has not received such a notice of meeting, it will not cause the meeting and any resolution made therein to be void. However, the promoters are not subject to the above statements.

Article 205 That where power is taken to cease sending dividend warrants by post, if such warrants have been left uncashed, it will not be exercised until such warrants have been so left uncashed on 2 consecutive occasions. However, such power may be exercised after the first occasion on which such a warrant is returned undelivered.

Chapter 23 Settlement of Disputes

Article 206 The Company shall abide by the following principles for dispute resolution:

- (1) Whenever any disputes or claims arise between: holders of the Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares and the Company; holders of the Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares and the Company's directors, supervisors, senior management personnel; or holders of the Overseas- Listed Foreign-Invested Shares and holders of Domestic-Invested Shares, in respect of any disputes or claims in relation to the affairs of the Company arising as a result of any rights or obligations arising from these Articles of Association, the Company Law or other relevant laws and administrative regulations, such disputes or claims shall be referred by the relevant parties to arbitration.

Where a dispute or claim of rights referred to in the preceding paragraph is referred to arbitration, the entire claim or dispute must be referred to arbitration, and all persons who have a cause of action based on the same facts giving rise to the dispute or claim or whose participation is necessary for the resolution of such dispute or claim, shall, where such person is the Company or the Company's shareholders, directors, supervisors, or senior management personnel, comply with the decisions made in the arbitration. Disputes in respect of the definition of shareholders and disputes in relation to the register of shareholders need not be resolved by arbitration.

- (2) A claimant may elect for arbitration to be carried out at either the China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission in accordance with its Rules or the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre in accordance with its Securities Arbitration Rules. Once a claimant refers a dispute or claim to arbitration, the other party must submit to the arbitral body elected by the claimant.

If a claimant elects for arbitration to be carried out at Hong Kong International Arbitration Center, any party to the dispute or claim may apply for a hearing to take place in Shenzhen in accordance with the Securities Arbitration Rules of the Hong Kong International Arbitration Center.

- (3) If any disputes or claims of rights are referred to arbitration in accordance with sub-paragraph (1) of this Article, the laws of the PRC shall apply, save as otherwise provided in the laws and administrative regulations.
- (4) The judgment of an arbitral body shall be final and conclusive and binding on all parties.

Chapter 24 Supplementary Articles

Article 207 These Articles of Association are written in Chinese. Where versions in other languages or different versions have different interpretations or meanings, the latest verified Chinese version registered in the Company registration authority shall prevail.

Article 208 The expressions of “above”, “within”, “below”, “expire”, “no more than” shall include the figures mentioned whilst the expressions of “short of”, “without” and “more than” shall not include the figures mentioned.

Article 209 In these Articles of Association, references to “accounting firm” shall have the same meaning as “auditors” in the Listing Rules.

Article 165 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

Article 210 The responsibility to interpret these Articles of Association vests with the board of directors of the Company.
