(13) To put forward a proposal to the Company on behalf of the shareholders holding at least 5% voting shares;

(14) Such other matters which should be determined at the General Meeting of Shareholders as are regulated by the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

Article 55 Without the prior approval of the General Meeting of Shareholders, the Company may not sign any contract under which such person other than the director, supervisor, GM or other senior management of the Company shall be responsible for the management of all or important affairs of the Company with such person. MP51

Article 56 The General Meeting of Shareholders is divided into the annual meeting and interim meeting. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall be convened by the Board of Directors. And the annual shareholder's meeting shall be convened once per year and within 6 months upon completion of each fiscal year. MP52

In case of any one of the following circumstances, the Board of Directors shall, within 2 months, convene the interim shareholder's meeting.

(1) The number of directors is less than the one regulated in the Company Law or two thirds of the one required in the Articles of Association;

(2) The losses not covered by the Company reaches one third of the total share capital;

(3) Such shareholders holding at least 10% of voting shares as are issued by the Company overseas proposes to convene the interim shareholder's meeting in writing;

(4) The Board of Directors deems it necessary or the Board of Supervisors proposes to convene.

Article 57 In case the shareholder's meeting is convened, the Company shall notify the MP53 shareholders of record of the matters discussed at the meeting and the time and place of the meeting in writing prior to 45 days before the meeting is convened. The shareholder who intends to attend the shareholder's meeting shall give a written reply about his/her attendance to the Company prior to 20 days before the meeting is convened.

The notice about convening the shareholder's meeting by the Company shall be sent no later than 60 days prior to the commencement of the meeting. The period of calculating the delivery of notice shall not include the date on which the meeting is convened and the notice is issued.

Article 58 Where the Company convenes the annual shareholder's meeting, then the shareholder holding at least 5% of voting shares may put forward a new proposal in writing to the Company. The Company shall include such matters listed in the proposal as are within the scope of duties of the shareholder's meeting into the agenda of such meeting. Such proposal shall be delivered to the Company at least 7 days prior to the issuance of the notice. MP54

Article 59 The Company shall calculate the number of such shares representing the voting rights as are held by the shareholders attending the meeting based on the written reply received 20 days prior to the commencement of the meeting. In case the number of such shares representing the voting rights as are held by the shareholders attending the meeting reaches more than a half of the total number of shares representing the voting rights, the Company may convene the shareholder's meeting; otherwise, the Company shall, within 5 days, notify the shareholders of the matters discussed at the meeting and the time and place of the meeting once again by giving a notice. In such case, the Company may convene the shareholder's meeting. MP55

The matters not specified in the notice shall not be decided at the interim shareholder's meeting.

Article 60 The notice of shareholder's meeting shall meet the following requirements: MP56

- (1) To be made in writing;
- (2) To specify the place, date and time of the meeting;
- (3) To specify the matters to be discussed at the meeting;
- (4) To provide the shareholder with the data and explanations required for such shareholder to make wise decisions on the matters discussed; such principle includes (but not limits to) the provision of specific conditions and contracts (if any) in connection with the proposed transaction and the careful explanation about the reasons and consequences while the Company needs to carry out the merger, redeem the shares and proceed with the reconstruction of share capital or other restructuring;
- (5) To, if any director, supervisor, manager or other senior management has any significant interest in the matters to be discussed, disclose the nature and degree of such interest and, if the matters to be discussed shall produce different impacts on such director, supervisor, manager or other senior management as the shareholder from the other same shareholders, to specify such difference;

(6) To present the whole contents of any special resolutions proposed to be adopted at the meeting;

(7) To expressly indicate in writing that the shareholder who has the right to attend and vote may authorize one or more than one shareholder agent to attend and vote in his/her name. However, such shareholder agent may not be the shareholder of the Company;

(8) To specify the time and place of delivery of the Letter of Authorization for Voting at the meeting.

Article 61 The notice of shareholder's meeting shall be sent to the shareholder (no matter such shareholder has the voting right or not) by hand or mail with postage paid and the address of recipient shall be the one registered in the register of shareholders.

MP57
A3-7(1),(2)

For the shareholder holding domestic shares, the notice of shareholder's meeting may be issued in the form of an announcement.

The aforesaid announcement shall be, within 45 to 50 days prior to the commencement of the meeting, published in one or more newspapers designated by the stock management department of the State Council. Once such announcement is published, it shall be deemed that all of the shareholders holding domestic shares have received the notice of shareholder's meeting.

Where the dividend warrant is sent by mail when the exercise of rights is terminated, then if such dividend warrant has not been withdrew, then such right may be exercised after such dividend warrant has not been withdrew for a consecutive of two times. However, such rights may also be exercised if such dividend warrant is not delivered to the recipient and returned for the first time.

A3-13(1),(2)(a)&

Regarding the exercise of the right to sell the shares of such shareholder who cannot be contacted, unless the following requirements are met, otherwise, such right may not be exercised:

- ① The dividend relevant to the shares has been paid at least three times within 12 years but not claimed during such period; and
- ② The Company publishes an advertising in the newspaper when such 12 years expire to indicate its intention to sell such shares and then notify the stock exchange.

Article 62 Where a meeting notice is not sent to the person who has the right to receive it or such person has not received such meeting notice due to the accidental omission, the meeting and the resolutions made at the meeting shall not accordingly become invalid.

Article 63 Any shareholder who has the right to attend the shareholder's meeting and exercise the voting right may authorize one or more than one person (such person may be not the shareholder) as the shareholder agent to attend and vote at the meeting in his/her name. With the authorization of such shareholder, such shareholder agent may exercise the following rights:

MP59

- (1) Such person may have a say at the shareholder's meeting;
- (2) Such person may, independently or jointly, request to vote by ballot;
- (3) Such person may exercise the right to vote by a show of hands or ballot. HOWEVER, if the number of shareholder agent authorized exceeds one, then such shareholder agent may only exercise the right to vote by ballot.

If such shareholder is the recognized clearing house (or its agent) (hereinafter referred to as "Recognized Clearing House") defined in the Stock and Futures (Clearing House) Regulations (Chapter 420 of Hong Kong Law), then he/she may authorize such one or more persons as it deems fit to serve as his/her representative at any shareholder's meeting or any classified shareholder's meeting; however, if more than one person is authorized, then the Letter of Authorization shall specify the number and class of share involved by such person with such authorization. Such person authorized may exercise the rights on behalf of the Recognized Clearing House as it is an individual shareholder of the Company.

Article 64 The shareholder may entrust its agent in writing. The entrustor or the agent entrusted by such entrustor in writing shall exercise the right to execute. Where the entrustor is a legal person, then the seal of such legal person shall be stamped or the director of or agent or personnel formally entrusted by such entrustor shall execute. MP60 A3-11(2)

Article 65 The Letter of Authorization for Voting by Proxy shall be kept at the address of the Company or any other place designated in the notice of convening the meeting within 24 hours prior to the commencement of such meeting as is voted by proxy in the Letter of Authorization or the designated time of voting. Where the Letter of Authorization is executed by any other person authorized by the entrustor, then a notary shall be done for the Letter of Authorization to be executed with the authorization or any other authorization document. Such Letter of Authorization or other authorization document notarized shall be kept at the address of the Company or any other place designated in the notice of convening the meeting together with the Letter of Authorization for Voting by Proxy. MP61

Where the entrustor is a legal person, then its legal representative or the person authorized by the Board of Directors and other decision-making body shall attend the shareholder's meeting of the Company on behalf.

Article 66 The shareholder may freely select to instruct the shareholder agent to cast a positive or negative vote in the format of such Letter of Authorization as is issued by the Board of Directors of the Company to it for the purpose of appointment of the shareholder agent and give separate instructions for the matters discussed and voted at the meeting. The Letter of Authorization shall specify that if the shareholder does not give any instructions, then the shareholder agent may cast a vote based on its true meaning. MP62 A3-11(1)

Article 67 Where the entrustor has been deceased, lost the ability for conduct, withdrawn the appointment or the authorization executed or relevant shares has been transferred prior to the vote, as long as the Company does not MP63 receive a written notice about such matters prior to the commencement of the meeting, then the voting cast by the shareholder agent according to the Letter of Authorization shall remain valid.

Article 68 The resolution of shareholder' meeting is divided into the ordinary resolution and special resolution. MP64

The ordinary resolution made at the shareholder's meeting shall be passed by such shareholder (including the shareholder agent) attending the shareholder's meeting as holds more than a half of the voting rights.

The special resolution made at the shareholder's meeting shall be passed by such shareholder (including the shareholder agent) attending the shareholder's meeting as holds more than two thirds of the voting rights.

Article 69 While casting a vote at the shareholder's meeting, the shareholder (including the shareholder agent) shall exercise the right to vote limited to the number of voting shares in its possession, one vote for one share. MP65

While casting a vote for relevant matters, any privilege or restrictions then imposed on the voting rights of any class of shares shall be observed.

Article 70 The resolution submitted for casting a vote shall be voted by a show of hands, unless the rules of listing in the Growth Enterprise Market or any other applicable laws, statutes or regulations requires to vote by casting a vote or the following person request to vote by ballot before or after the results of voting by a show of hands are declared: MP66

(1) Chairman of the meeting;

(2) At least two shareholders who attend and have the right to vote in person or by proxy;

(3) Any one or more shareholders who attend in person or by proxy and have the right to vote at the meeting and own no less than one tenth of the total voting rights of all of the shareholders casting a vote.

Unless a vote by ballot is required in the way mentioned above, while the Chairman declares to deal with the resolution in the way of voting by a show of hands and include such results in the minute of relevant meeting, then a final proof of relevant facts shall be constituted and in such case it is no need to prove the number or proportion of positive or negative votes cast for such resolution.

Any request for casting a vote may be rejected.

Article 71 If the matter required to be voted by ballot is the election of the Chairman of the meeting or the termination of the meeting, then a vote shall be immediately cast; otherwise, the Chairman shall decide when to cast a vote and the other matters may be continuously discussed at the meeting. The results of voting shall still be deemed as the resolution passed at such meeting. MP67

(1) Such two or more than two shareholders as jointly hold 10% or above voting shares at the meeting to be convened may execute one or several copies of the written request having the same format and contents, proposes the Board of Directors to convene the interim shareholder's meeting or the classified shareholder's meeting and specify the topics of the meeting. The Board of Directors shall convene the interim shareholder's meeting or the classified shareholder's meeting as soon as possible upon receipt of the aforesaid written request. The aforesaid number of shares held shall be calculated as per the one incurred on the date on which the shareholder submits a written request.

(2) If the Board of Directors fails to, within 30 days upon receipt of the aforesaid written request, issue the notice of convening the meeting, then such shareholder who submits such request may, within 4 months since the Board of Directors receives such request, at its sole discretion convene the meeting. The procedures of convening should be the same as the one of convening the shareholder's meeting by the Board of Directors as possible.

Where the shareholder convenes the meeting at its sole discretion because the Board of Directors fails to, upon the aforementioned request, convened the meeting, then any reasonable fee incurred therefrom shall be borne by the Company and deducted from such amount as is owed by the Company to the director who makes a breach of the duty.

- Article 77 The Chairman shall convene and preside over the shareholder's meeting. In case the Chairman cannot attend the meeting due to any reasons, the Deputy Chairman shall do so. In case neither the Chairman nor the Deputy Chairman can attend the meeting, the Board of Directors may nominate one director of the Company to convene and preside over the meeting; otherwise, the shareholders attending may elect one person to serve as the Chairman of the meeting. In case the shareholders attending cannot elect the Chairman due to any reasons, such shareholder (including the shareholder agent) attending as holds the maximum voting shares shall serve as the Chairman of the meeting. MP73
- Article 78 The Chairman of the meeting has the right to decide whether or not to pass the resolution of the shareholder's meeting, declare the results at the meeting and then include in the minutes. His/her decision shall be final. MP74
- Article 79 In case the Chairman of the meeting has any doubt about the voting results, he/she may count the number of votes. If the Chairman of the meeting does not count the votes, and if the shareholder or shareholder agent attending has any objection against the results declared by the Chairman of the meeting, then such shareholder or shareholder agent may immediately request to count the votes after the results are declared and the Chairman of the meeting should do so. MP75

If the Company is aware that pursuant to the rules of listing in the Growth Enterprise Market, any shareholder has to waive the right to vote or is restricted for the proposal of any specific resolution and can only vote for or against the proposal of any specific resolution, then any votes cast by such shareholder in person or by proxy under the condition that such regulation or restriction is violated shall be invalid and not calculated.

Article 80

If the notes will be counted at the shareholder's meeting, then the results of such counting shall be included in the minutes.

MP76

The minutes of the shareholder's meeting, book of signature of the shareholders attending and the Letter of Authorization for Attendance in Proxy shall be kept at the domicile of the Company.

The aforesaid minutes, signature book and Letter of Authorization may not be destroyed within 10 years.

Article 81 The shareholder may freely access to the copy of the minutes of the shareholder's meeting during the working hours of the Company. Where any shareholder requests a copy of such minutes from the Company, then the Company shall, within 7 days upon receipt of the reasonable fee, deliver such copy.

Chapter 9 Special Voting Procedures of Classified Shareholders

Article 82 The shareholders who hold different types of shares are called as classified shareholders. MP78

Classified shareholders enjoy rights and undertake obligations in accordance with the provisions of laws, administrative regulations and this constitution.

Article 83 In case the Company intends to alter or abolish the rights of classified shareholders, it should be carried out after shareholders' general meeting adopts in special resolution and the affected classified shareholders respectively adopt in shareholders' general meeting convened according to Article 85 to Article 88. MP79

Article 84 The following circumstances should be regarded as to alter or abolish the rights of classified shareholders: MP80

(1) To increase or decrease the number of classified shares, or increase or reduce the number of the classified shares which enjoy the same or more voting rights, distribution rights or other privileges as this classified share.

(2) To replace all or part of the classified shares with other categories, or replace all or part of the other classified shares with the classified shares or grant such conversion rights;

(3) To cancel or reduce the dividend on shares which the classified shares own and obtain the dividend on shares which have been generated or the rights of accumulating dividend;

(4) To reduce or cancel the right by which the classified shares have the priority to obtain dividends on shares or the priority to obtain the rights of property distribution in liquidation of the Company;

(5) To increase, cancel or reduce the right of shares conversion, options, voting rights, transference rights, priority ration right and the right to obtain securities of the Company which the classified shares own;

(6) To cancel or reduce the rights of obtaining the Company's payables by particular currency which the classified shares own;

(7) To establish a new category which enjoys the same or more voting rights, distribution rights or other privileges as which the classified shares have;

(8) To limit or increase the limit on transfer or ownership of classified shares;

(9) The rights of issuing the classified shares or another classified shares subscription rights or shares conversion;

(10) To increase the rights and privileges of other classified shares;

(11) The corporate's restructuring program would constitute that different classified shareholders will take responsibilities disproportionately in reorganization;

(12) To modify or repeal the provisions which are set in this chapter.

Article 85 When it comes to Article 84 (2) to (8), (11) to (12) , the affected classified shareholders, whether they have voting rights in the shareholders' general meeting originally or not, would have voting rights in the general meeting of classified shareholders. However, the interested shareholders do not have voting rights in the general meeting of classified shareholders. MP81

The meanings of "interested shareholders" referred in the preceding paragraph are as following:

(1) When the Company issues repurchase offer to all shareholders at the same proportion or repurchase their own shares by the way of open transaction in securities exchange according to the provisions of Article 27 of the constitution, the "interested shareholders" refer to the majority shareholders defined in Article 52 of the constitution;

(2) When the Company repurchases its own shares by the way of agreement outside of Securities Exchange in accordance with the provisions of Article 27 of the constitution, the "interested shareholders" means the shareholders related to the agreement;

(3) In the Company's restructuring program, the "interested shareholders" refers to the shareholders who take responsibilities at the proportion lower than other shareholders of the class and shareholders who own different interests with other shareholders in this classified shareholder.

Article 86 The resolution of the classified shareholders' meetings could only be made after being adopted by over two-thirds of the shareholders who have voting rights and attend the classified shareholders' meeting under Article 85. MP82

Article 87 In case the Company holds classified shareholders' meeting, a notice in written form shall be made 45 days before the meeting informing all the registered shareholders of this classified shares of the matters under discussion as well as the meeting date and place. The shareholders who propose to attend the meeting should send a written reply on attending the meeting to the Company 20 days before the meeting. MP83

In case the number of shares represented by the shareholders proposing to attend the meeting which have voting right in the meeting exceeds half of the total number of the classified shares which have voting right in the meeting, the Company could hold classified shareholder meeting; otherwise, the Company should inform shareholders once again of the matters under discussion as well as the meeting date and place within five days by public notice. After public notice, the Company could hold classified shareholder meeting.

Article 88 The notice of classified shareholder meeting could only be given to the shareholders who have the right to vote at the meeting. MP84

Classified shareholder meetings should be held in the same procedures as much as possible as the shareholders' general meeting, the clauses about the holding procedures of shareholders' general meeting in this constitution apply to classified shareholder meeting.

Article 89 Except the shareholders of other classified shares, the shareholders of domestic share and the shareholders of overseas listed foreign-owned shares are deemed as different classified shareholder. The domestic shareholders of domestic share and the shareholders of non-listed foreign-owned shares are not deemed as different classified shareholder. MP85

The following circumstances are not applicable to the special procedures of classified shareholders vote: A11c-1(f)(i)&(i i)

(1) After being approved by special resolution in the shareholders' general meeting, the Company shall individually or simultaneously issue domestic shares and overseas listed foreign-owned shares at each interval of 12 months, the number of domestic shares and overseas listed foreign-owned shares to be issued respectively does not exceed 20% of the shares issued of this class;

(2) The plan on issuing domestic shares and overseas listed foreign-owned shares on establishment of the Company is completed within 15 months from the date of approval by the securities regulatory department under the State Council.

Chapter 10 Board of Directors

Article 90 The Company shall set up a Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall be composed of 8 directors including a chairman, a vice chairman and six directors (three of whom shall be independent non-executive directors). MP86

Article 91 Article 91 The first candidate of Board of Directors is nominated by the sponsor and elected by inaugural meeting of the Company. The term of directors starts since the date of winning the election.

Article 92 The directors are elected by the shareholders' meeting with term of three years. Upon the expiry of tenure, directors could take office after re-election. All the directors appointed to fill in casual vacancy shall accept the election by shareholders in the first shareholders' general meeting. Every director (including directors with specified term of office) should leave and take office in turn at least once every three years. MP87

The intention to nominate director candidates and the written notice in which candidates express that they are willing to accept the nomination should be issued to the Company at least seven days before shareholders' meeting.

Chairman and Vice Chairman are elected and removed by over half of all directors. Chairman and vice chairman will serve for a period of three years. Under the premise that the requirements of GEM board Listing Rules are met, they could take office after re-election.

Directors need not hold the shares of the Company.

Shareholders' general meeting could recall any directors (including directors, general manager or other executive director) before their term of office is expired by the way of ordinary resolution under the premise of compliance with relevant laws and administrative regulations, but the proposed claims shall not be affected by this in accordance with any contract.

The directors may serve as general manager or other senior management positions (except supervisors).

Article 93

The Board of Directors shall be responsible for shareholders' meeting and exercise the following functions and powers:

MP88

- (1) To be responsible for convening shareholders' general meeting and make report to shareholders' general meeting;
- (2) To implement the resolutions of shareholders' general meeting;
- (3) To determine the Company's business plans and investment programs;

- (10) To develop the Company's basic management system;
- (11) To formulate the constitution amendment;

(12) To make the Company's initial major acquisitions or sales disposal;

(13) Under the premise of complying with relevant laws, regulations and this constitution and relevant rules, exercise the Company's right to raise capital and borrow as well as decide mortgage, lease, subcontract or transfer of the Company's major assets, and authorize the general manager to exercise the powers mentioned herein within a certain range;

(14) In case the number of director vacancy does not exceed the number provided in the Company Act or not less than two-thirds of the amount required in the constitution, appoint any person as director to fill in temporary vacancy of the Board of Directors. The term of temporary directors shall continue until the next shareholders' general meeting. The director is eligible for re-election; A3-4(2)

(15) Other functions and powers granted by shareholders' general meeting and the constitution.

As for the Board of Directors make resolutions as in the preceding paragraph, except (6), (7), (11) and (12) which must be voted and agreed by more than two-thirds of directors, and the rest parts could be voted and agreed by more than half of the directors.

Board of Directors exercises any rights which are provided in the constitution to be exercised by shareholders' general meeting. The Board of Directors shall comply with the provisions of the constitution and the provisions which shareholders' general meeting formulate from time to time, but the regulations developed by the Company's shareholders' general meeting do not make the originally valid act by Board of Directors before this provision void.

Article 94 When the Board of Directors disposes fixed assets, such as dispose the expectancy of fixed assets, in case the sum of the value which is obtained from disposed fixed assets within four months before this disposal recommendation exceeds 33% of the value of fixed assets of the Company that is shown in balance sheet under recent discussion by shareholders' general meeting, then the Board of Directors shall not dispose or agree to dispose this fixed asset prior to the approval of shareholders' general meeting. MP89

The disposal of fixed assets in this section includes the transfer of certain assets and interests, but excluding the act of providing security by fixed assets.

The validity of the transactions carried out by the Company's disposal of fixed assets shall not be affected for violation of paragraph (1) of this article.

Article 95 The chairman of the Board of Directors shall exercise the following powers: MP90

(1) To preside over shareholders' general meeting, convene and preside over Board of Directors' meetings;

(2) To check the implementation of resolutions of the Board of Directors;

(3) To sign the securities issued by the Company;

(4) To sign the Company's other important files or authorize one or more of the directors of the Company by power of attorney to sign the Company's other important files.

(5) Other functions and powers granted by the Board of Directors;

When the chairman of the Board of Directors is unable to fulfill its functions and powers, the chairman of the Board of Directors could designate a vice chairman to perform its functions and powers on behalf of him.

Article 96 The Board of Directors shall convene at least two meetings annually which are convened by the chairman of the Board of Directors. MP91

In case of urgent matter, after over one third of the directors or general manager makes a proposal, a provisional Board of Directors' meeting could be held.

Article 97 In case the time and address for Board of Directors' meeting are specified in advance by the Board of Directors, the meeting could be convened without notice. If the Board of Directors does not decide the time and place of Board of Directors' meetings in advance, the chairman of the Board of Directors shall instruct the Company Secretary to notify all directors and Chairman of the Board of Supervisors of the time and place of Board of Directors' meetings by telex, telegram, fax, express mail, registered mail or by special person no less than ten days and no more than thirty days in advance before the meeting. MP92

In case of emergency matters, a provisional Board of Directors meeting needs to be convened, the chairman of the Board of Directors should instruct the Company secretary to notify all directors and Chairman of the Board of Supervisors of the time and place of temporary Board of Directors' meetings by telex, telegram, fax, express mail, registered mail or by special person no less than two days and no more than ten days in advance before temporary Board of Directors' meeting.

The notice shall be written in Chinese language and shall include agenda and topic. The English translation version of relevant notice could be attached if necessary.

In case directors have attended the meeting and has not proposed any objection about failing to receive the meeting notice before or at the meeting, it should be deemed to have issued the meeting notice.

Article 98 The Board of Directors' meetings could be held only with the attendance of more than half of directors. MP93

Each director has one vote. Without violation of the situations referred in the second paragraph of Article 93 of this constitution, the Board of Directors makes a resolution which must be adopted by over half of all current directors.

In case the number of dissenting vote and affirmative vote are equal, the chairman of the Board of Directors has the right to vote one more.

A Director shall neither vote on any contract or arrangement which the director itself or any of its associates (as defined in the GEM board Listing Rules) has material interest in or any other proposed Board of Director's resolution, nor count in the quorum which is present at the same Board of Directors' meeting.

A3-4(1)

Article 99 Directors may attend the directors' regular meeting or special meeting by telephone or other communications facilities. With the above facilities, all participants could clearly hear other person's speech and talk to or exchange with each other, then such directors shall be deemed to have personally attended the meeting.

MP94

Board of Directors' meetings should be attended by directors themselves. In case a director is unable to attend for reasons, he could appoint other director in writing to attend the Board of Directors' meeting on behalf of him. The appointment shall set forth empower scope.

The directors who attend the meeting on behalf shall exercise the rights of the directors within their authority scope. In case the directors neither attend certain Board of Directors' meeting nor commission representative to attend, it shall be deemed to have given up the voting right at that meeting.

The appointed representative himself must be a director. When counting the quorum of Board of Directors' meeting, one should count the representative himself and the director represented separately; he could not veto affirmatively and negatively simultaneously by his right. Directors must also notify the Company of the termination of appointment of its representatives.
